08 March 2022 07:35

Hello girls (Including my Aapa)

First of all my best wishes for you guys on this Women's day 2022. When I started reading quotes on online platforms then in 2016 I got the best quote about Women i.e.

You educate a man; you educate a man. You educate a woman; you educate a generation.

Brigham Young

After becoming Co-founder of PET Botany I meet many girls virtually in those many were so interesting and had characters, qualities & great learning desire. In my perspective, most of the girls just depend on external resources e.g. Success, fame & money etc. There is no glory in achieving these things (Success, fame & money, etc). Life is not about collecting things. In my sense "Women are real the real architects of the family & society" so you guys need to be the superstar of your life so all above being the hero of your life not the villain or Victim of your life. If you want to see a better family/Society then be the person you need to be beyond the Success, fame & money, etc work for the Earth, Environment, Science, Future generation, Present family & Society, etc. If you are not willing to do a great job then you are also responsible for bad impacts of life & family/society.

3 years ago accidentally a girl come into my life. By my works & thought process she impressed to me a lot that's why she believes I'm a perfect person, Superstar & Her thoughts regarding me was "Maybe each & every girl get like you boyfriend/husband/Brother in their life." She realized how nice & powerful my thought process is! but at the same time after a couple of months of a good relationship caused by a personal life incident that ruined our dreams even everything. I never wanted She get involved in my personal life's issues so I never wanted to share my problems but her perspective changed later because before that incident we never talked about the money we were happy with our thoughts, relationship, dreams etc Once She said that if you have money then your goodness will know everyone if have not then none. In my sense she believes in money means She believes that money can do everything. Yes of course money is important as much as petrol in motorcycle no more no less, It gives us the freedom to think out of personal problems but still, money can't do everything the things are above the money are :

Goodness, Truth, Faith, Friendship, True love, Unconditional Supports, Family, Earth, Life and most important our characters & choices.

Wait don't think out of the box I'm also a human I want to do my job & earn money also have long term plans like saving 10-30% of my savings for long term, Running+Exercises, Creating my thoughts, Students Development, World-traveling etc I can do everything because I've good thought process, good qualities, passion & stamina and most important I'm the owner of my life I'm 100% responsible for myself or my life. But still, I'm not a perfect person & my aim is also not to be a perfect person but being good enough. I've no regret in my life or will not be further ahead because I'm not Karm I'm Marasli yes Karm has goen 26.12.2022 & Marasli means 10% philosopher, 20% athlete, 30% Student, 20% researcher, 5% fighter, 5% lover, 5% motivational speaker, 5% artist the price I'm affording to be Marasli are uncountable. I live my life one by one day; I've 24 hrs in which 18-22 hrs for me and my works. I don't think about people a lot means I'm not... What they think, say, and believe! I'm what... I think, believe & actions take, no matter what they think about me even they are my family members, relatives, or friends. I don't judge the people but observe how they think & how they take action then I decide to join them. One more fact Science studies teach me being a science student means learn in the best way so you can explain in good way if you can't explain means you've not learned. Science teaches me what & how to think. Discuss ideas, learnings, Improvements, developments, discoveries, etc not about the people or their problems.

So conclusion is that

Be Superstar of your life... think good, learn more & more, love truly, be loyal, girls don't expect someone else to come in your life and feel you proud, fulfill your dreams. don't wait for anyone else or in the miracle. Life is not about searching It's about creating so create the life you have dreamed ever.
